Part 2 – Student Service Learning Assignment

Course Registration: Students are responsible for registering for the 4-credit Service Learning 1 course by obtaining an SPN from the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs after submitting all required documentation.

Service Learning 1 Course: Students are registered for a formal seminar course which includes assignments, class sessions, activities, and relevant deadlines. Please refer to the syllabus provided by the faculty member to remain in good standing. Deadlines for class assignments and final grades for the course are determined by the faculty member teaching the course.

Inappropriate Behavior: Should the supervisor contact SPAA about inappropriate behavior and/or termination from the internship site, students will receive a failing grade for Service Learning 1. Site supervisors should notify the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs and the Service Learning 1 instructor as soon as any concerns arise.

Attendance during Internship: Students are expected to show up for their internship according to the signed questionnaire. Arriving late and departing early is disruptive to the organization and its staff. Attendance will be verified by the site supervisor through the midterm and final evaluation. The site supervisor may also wish to verify attendance on a weekly basis.

Professionalism: The School of Public Affairs and Administration is a professional school. We expect our students to represent the high standards expected of SPAA. Students will demonstrate honesty, punctuality, courtesy, cooperative attitudes, proper hygiene, grooming habits, appropriate dress attire and willingness to learn. Students should adhere to the policies, procedures, and dress code of the internship organization.

Personal Devices: Use of personal technological devices are limited to appropriate professional conduct as explained by the internship supervisor. A best practice is to place cell phone on vibrate to avoid disturbing staff members. In addition, internet use should be kept to professional activities and not used to email friends and/or visit social media pages.

Unforeseen Issues: Students who encounter any issues while interning with the organization should notify the site supervisor and work with the organization to address their concerns according to the organization's policy and procedure. If the issue cannot be resolved in this manner, notify the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs and course instructor immediately.

Restrictions: Internships are expected to integrate academic and professional experiences. Therefore, academic credit will not be awarded retroactively for previous employment/internship experiences. For example: Students cannot complete an internship during the summer and register for the seminar course during the fall semester. Similarly, students will not receive internship credit for normal duties performed through a pre-existing employment. Internal internships performed with pre-existing employer must be separate and distinct from daily responsibilities. Internal internships must be discussed and approved by the Assistant Dean before a Questionnaire is executed.

Paid/Unpaid Internships: Students must understand that all internships (paid or unpaid) are educational learning experiences, and the intern is not entitled to a promise of employment at the completion of the structured learning experience.

Successful Completion: To receive full academic credit, students must complete 150 hours, receive midterm and final evaluations from supervisors, and maintain satisfactory academic progress in the seminar course. Additionally, the internship start and end date should align with the course start and end date. Please alert the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs if your internship will not start and end the same week as the course.

Internship Fit: It is the sole responsibility of the student to assess an internship opportunity to determine its fit with the student's interests and schedule. It also the student's responsibility to review the internship's applicability to Service Learning 1 criteria. However, it is at the discretion of SPAA to approve or deny any internship requests. Additionally, students cannot change internship sites once the questionnaire is signed unless they've received written permission from the course instructor and Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs.

Hold Harmless Agreement: For relationship(s) between Rutgers and the outside facility, hold harmless agreements must be reviewed by Rutgers. Students cannot sign the hold harmless agreement as they do not have the authority to sign such agreements. The hold harmless agreement will need to be signed by a designee (faculty or staff) from the department that is allowing the student to do the internship and representative of the organization offering the internship.

Hold harmless agreements should be reviewed if they are presented to a student. In that scenario, there are two options:

1. If the student is earning credit, a representative from Rutgers must review the agreement.
2. If the student is seeking an internship independently without credit, the student can sign this agreement directly.

I acknowledge that I have read and understand the requirements listed in this Questionnaire and agree to the standards and policies of the Service Learning Internship program in SPAA. All the information provided is accurate to the best of my knowledge.

Internship Assessment: The quality of internships, both the degree of professional experience gained by students and the quality of work they perform, will be assessed at the mid-point and end of each semester. Interns will complete evaluation forms that document their experience as part of the course, and internship supervisors will complete forms to evaluate the intern's performance.

These forms serve several purposes. First, supervisor ratings of interns are considered in the assignment of a grade. Second, intern ratings will guide decisions whether to approve future internship applications with the sponsoring organization. Third, the Assistant Dean for Undergraduate Programs will utilize the forms to conduct mid-semester site visits and/or inquiries with the supervisor about the intern's performance.

Internship Compliance: Employer Compliance with anti-discrimination and workplace safety statutes by Internship Sponsor Site:
