and Administration

What We Are

Established in 2020, The SPAA Student Ambassador Program is a multi-level leadership opportunity for undergraduate and graduate students who subscribe to the values of competence, diversity, knowledge, ethics, and service.

Hello!

Who We Are

A diverse group of student leaders advocating for the SPAA community, participating in personal development, and preparing for the next generation of leaders.

What We Do

SPAA Ambassadors represent the School of Public Affairs and Administration in a variety of activities including:

- Admissions
- Public Engagements
- Marketing Initiatives
- Personal Development

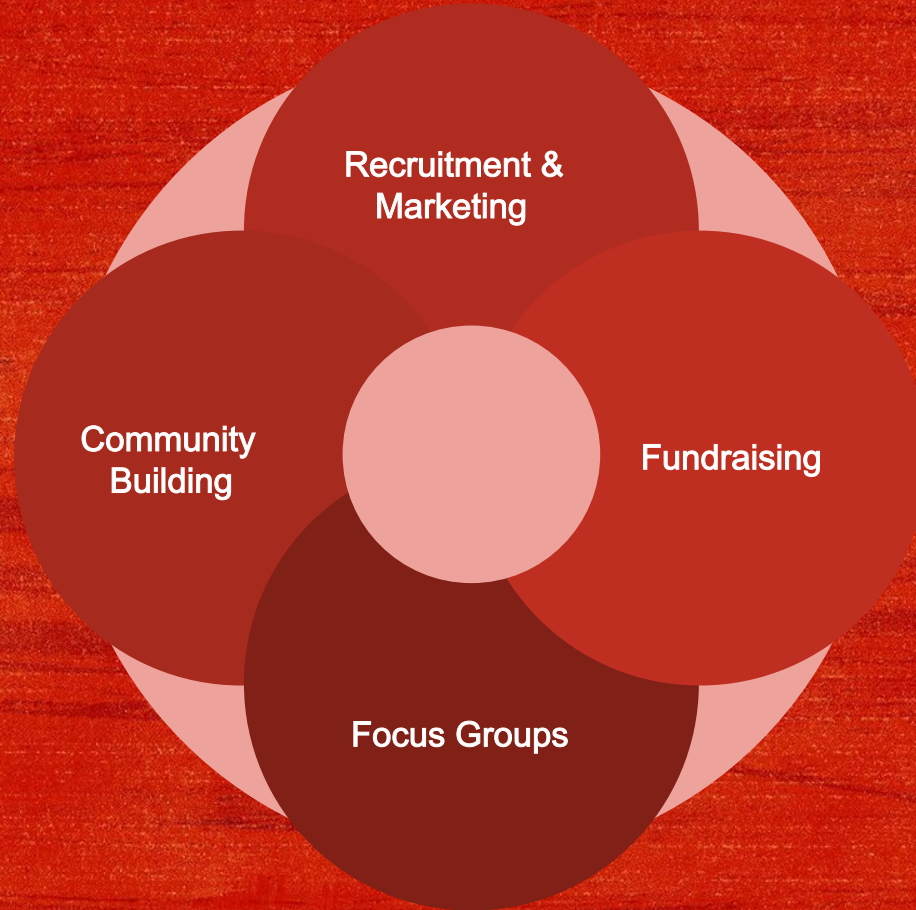

How We Can Help

- With Ambassador students coming from the SPAA Undergraduate, Traditional MPA, Online MPA, and EMPA programs, we are here to assist students of all levels with:
 - Getting students involved in the SPAA community.
 - Addressing student concerns through focus groups.
 - Assistance with navigating admissions, financial aid and career development processes.
 - Bridging current students and alumni networks.

Committees

Recruitment and Marketing Committee

We work to recruit and retain the next generation of public service leaders.

Fundraising Committee

We work on raising money for the various initiatives promoted by the Ambassadors.

Focus Groups Committee

We foster discussions on creating change that positively influences our SPAA community.

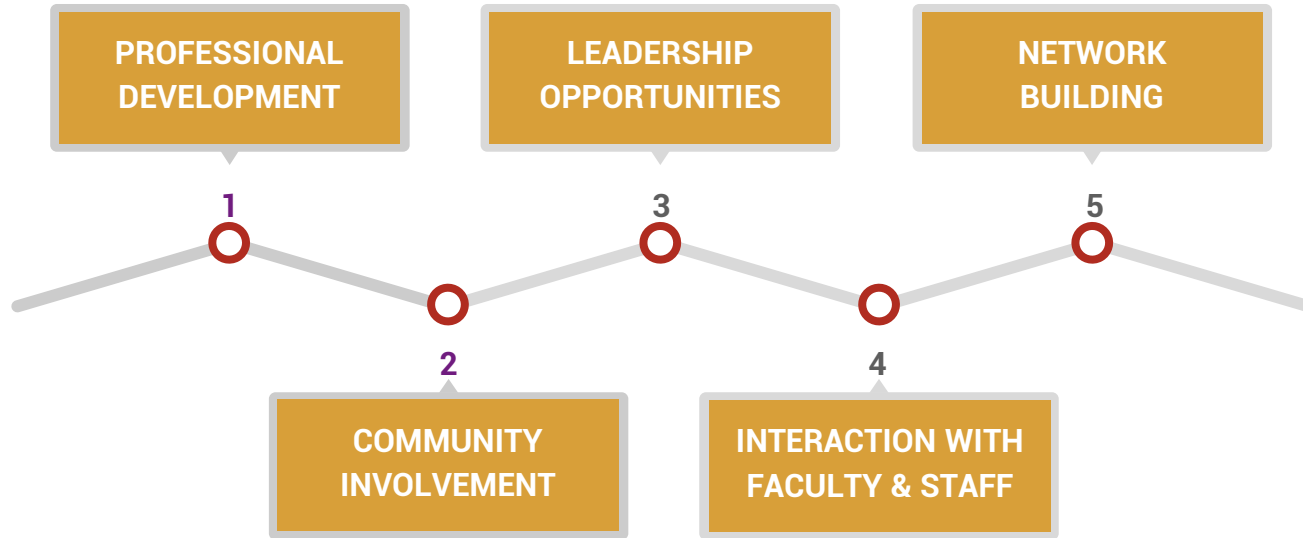

Community Building Committee

We bridge communications between SPAA students, alumni and faculty to create new opportunities in engaging with the greater Newark community.

Benefits of Becoming a SPAA Ambassador
