Overview

School Founded: 2006

Following decades of accomplishments via the Graduate Department of Public Administration at Rutgers University-Newark, the School of Public Affairs and Administration (SPAA) was established in 2006. SPAA is organized as a discrete School, with administrative and policy control over all undergraduate and Master's Program activities. The Ph.D. program is organizationally part of the RU-N Graduate School.

Degree Programs: 7

- Bachelor of Arts in Public and Nonprofit Administration (BA)
- Master of Public Administration (MPA) [42 credit hours]
- 100% Online MPA [42 credit hours]
- 5-Year Dual Degree (BA/MPA or BS/MPA)
- Juris Doctor / Master of Public Administration (JD/MPA)
- MPA/Master of Accountancy (MACCY)
- Ph.D. in Public Administration

Certificate Programs: 8

- Appreciative Inquiry for Strengths-Based Leadership and Innovation in Public and Nonprofit Sectors
- Budgeting and Financial Management [graduate credit]
- Certified Public Manager (with the State of New Jersey) [potential credit]
- Healthcare Administration [graduate credit]
- Leadership of Public Organizations [graduate credit]
- Nonprofit Management [graduate credit]
- Public Performance Measurement [graduate credit]

Accreditation: Nationally and Internationally

- NASPAA (Network of Schools of Public Policy, Affairs, and Administration) [accredited 1989]
- First U.S. school to receive international accreditation in public administration programs: ICAPA (International Commission on Accreditation of Public Administration Education and Training) [accredited 2015]

Rankings: U.S News & World Report [Reported as 2017 rankings; ranked in Fall 2015]

- 7th in Information and Technology
- 11th in City Management and Urban Policy
- 13th in Public Management / Administration
- 17th in Nonprofit Management
- 18th in Public Finance and Budgeting
- 28th in Public Policy Analysis
- 34th in Public Affairs

Admissions

Tables 1-3 show applications and admission figures, by program, for SPAA’s regular MPA, EMPA, and Ph.D. programs. “Admit rate” is the percentage of applicants who are accepted into the program. “Yield” is the percentage of accepted applicants who actually register for classes. Data include degree students only.

Table 4 shows average GPAs for admitted graduate students in their most recent degree program. For master’s students, this is usually their undergraduate degree program. For Ph.D. students, it is usually a prior master’s degree. Many of SPAA’s master’s students (especially EMPA students) are well into their careers, so their GPAs may be from a program many years earlier.

Table 4. Prior GPAs of Admitted Students

Enrollment

Table 5 shows enrollments by full- and part-time status, by program. These are “unduplicated” numbers, meaning that each enrolled student is only counted once each academic year, regardless of the number of terms for which they enroll in classes. The distinction between part-time and full-time is based on the current semester when the data are updated. It is only an approximation, because student may (and frequently do) change their status.

Table 5. Degree Enrollment, by Program & Full- / Part-Time Status

Demographics

SPAA has an incredibly diverse student body. Ethnic diversity for MPA students in fall 2015 is shown in Chart 4. This includes domestic students and permanent residents only.

Last updated 1/20/2018

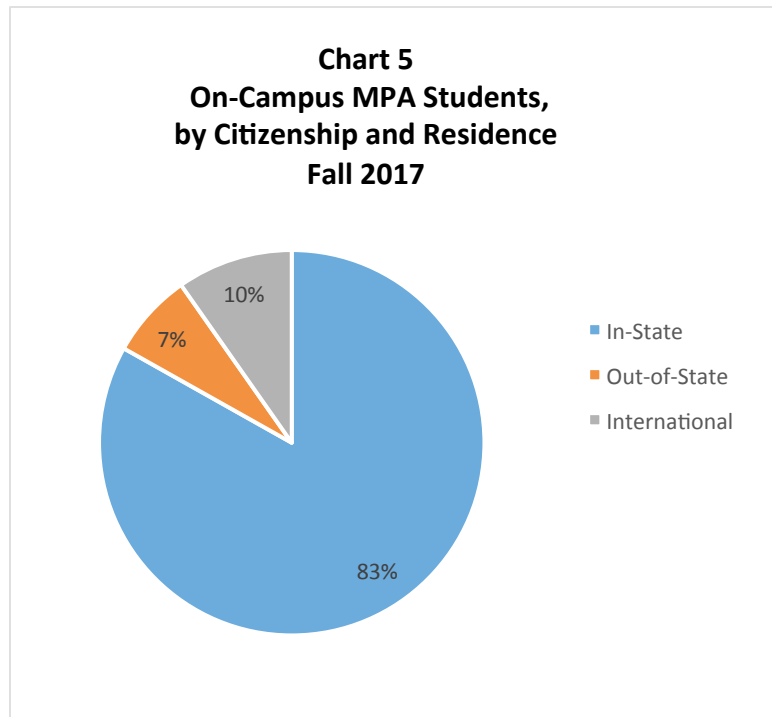

Table 6 shows the racial and ethnic makeup new students entering in Academic Year 2016-17, for students, by program. It uses a standard federal definition, which only includes domestic, matriculating students. Not shown in Table 6 is the fact that many of SPAA's graduate students are international in origin. This is especially true for the Ph.D. and on-campus MPA program.

Table 6. Ethnicity of Newly Enrolled Domestic Students: by Program, AY 2016-17

	On-Campus MPA	On-Line MPA	Ph.D.	BA (Majors Only)
Asian	6%	3%	33%	15%

Last updated 8/12/17

Chart 5 shows the composition of students in the on-campus MPA program for fall 2017. Since 2015, the share of international students has declined from 37% to just 10% in 2017.

Last updated 1/20/2018

As Chart 6 shows, the online MPA program has domestic, out-of-state students, but essentially no international students. The share of on-line students that are from New Jersey has increased significantly, from 52% in 2015 to 73% in 2017.

Last updated 1/20/2018

The increasing enrollment of out-of-state and international students is clearly shown in Chart 7.

Last updated 10/17/2017

Chart 8 shows SPAA’s international students in 2017, by country of origin. There is a strong dominance of China as a source of students.

Last Updated 1/20/2018

Chart 9 shows the percentage of female students by degree. Note that the volatility in the percentage of females in the Ph.D. program is due in part to the small number of Ph.D. students.

Last Updated 1/20/2018

Outcomes

Table 7 shows the number of MPA students entering in AY 2011-12, and the percentage of each class graduating within one, two, or three years. The numbers are cumulative so that, for instance, the number of students graduating in three years includes those graduating in two years. SPAA's MPA is designed to be completed in 5 semesters based on full-time attendance, carrying a course load of nine credits per semester:

Table 7. Completion Times and Persistence-MPA Program
Academic Year of Entry	Students Entering	Graduated within 2 years	Graduated within 3 years	Graduated within 4 years	Total Students Graduated and Persisting to Graduation
2011-2012	118	66%	81%	85%	85%
2010-2011	91	62%	70%	74%	80%
2009-2010	93	63%	77%	83%	83%
2008-2009	71	42%	80%	83%	85%

Last Updated 1/20/2018

Because many of SPAA’s master’s students attend part-time, the percentage of students finishing in two years is relatively low.

There is no standard completion time for the Ph.D. program. However, many full-time students finish in about four years, and very few students finish sooner than that. Table 8 shows the number of students completing their degree in four years or less, and five years or more. In the years included, there were no students who required more than six years to complete their Ph.D. degree. The table also shows the percentage of students who have not completed their degree, but who are still enrolled and actively working toward their degree. The withdrawn students shown are those who are no longer enrolled. In some cases, these students do indeed finish.

These numbers are not adjusted for the number of part-time students in any way. In fall semester, 2017, 65% of doctoral students attended part-time.

MPA Employment Outcomes: Table 9 shows employment status for members of the 2015-16 graduating class, based on 55 responses to a survey sent to 157 individuals.
