NJPAC is seeking an intern to assist with the research and design of digital media services to support its arts education programming. The position includes researching best practices and existing models in arts education and making recommendations regarding how NJPAC can utilize technology to enhance its offerings. The intern will work closely with NJPAC leadership to develop an implementation plan.

NJPAC’s Arts Education programs reach over 60,000 children per year in four areas:

ARTS TRAINING
Students ages 10-18 work with professional artist educators to develop talent and creativity in the areas of acting, modern dance, hip-hop, ballet, vocals, instrumental jazz, and musical theater.

IN-SCHOOL RESIDENCY PROGRAMS
Provides innovative, in-depth arts classes to spur pre-schoolers to 12th-graders imaginations and encourage creative self-expression.

SCHOOLTIME PERFORMANCE SERIES
Introduces students to the magic of the stage. Programs feature music, dance, storytelling, theater, puppetry and are linked to curriculum areas such as world languages, social studies, and language arts.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Engages classroom teachers, arts specialists and teaching artists as integrated teams that combine arts pedagogy, content, classroom management and social behavioral strategies.
